Learning to Be Meek Matthew 5:5

1. Learning to be meek means trusting God first in all things
 - 1) Trusting God's heart and Word
 - 2) Trusting God in daily living
 - i. Self
 - ii. Others
 - iii. Temporary
 - iv. Eternal
2. Learning to be meek means living God-honoring character
 - 1) Honoring God in attitude and action
 - 2) Surrendering rights to God for His glory
 - 3) Modeling righteousness and truth to men
3. Learning to be meek means accepting God's blessings and provision
 - 1) Daily provision
 - 2) Covenant promises, i.e. the land, the earth, heaven

4. Learning to be meek means understanding it's a lifelong process
 - 1) Daily – no carryovers
 - 2) Chosen – not automatic
 - 3) Personal – no one can choose for me or substitute for me
 - 4) Costs – choices have consequences
